Located on the first floor at the garden side of the house this 'sumptuous' Deluxe bedroom has stunning views across the garden towards the woodland. Historically the 'Gentleman's' bedroom, this room is bold and rich and gives the ultimate 'Baronial' feel.

The heritage of the room is shown within original wall panelling, high panelled ceilings and large intricate leaded windows with a relaxing garden window seat.

Taking name and style inspiration from times past at the famous hip New York Gramercy Park Hotel, the room design features a super-king half tester bed with wine coloured velvet drapes and bespoke wood turnings, a seating area of Victorian furniture, over the top window drapes and a free standing cast iron bath that sits next to the window seat. The bathroom boasts a classic large washstand, walk in shower and a fully enclosed loo.
